

Navigating Diversity & Fair Housing: Ensuring Inclusive Representation to Build Bridges in Real Estate Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for all

Amanda Byun, Esq. is a Senior Counsel with the Member Legal Services Department at California Association of REALTORS. Amanda has been a real estate attorney for over twenty-five years and has co-authored a three-hour DRE approved fair housing course and edited a two-hour DRE approved implicit bias course. She also advises REALTORS on the C.A.R. Legal Hotline and the monthly Legal Live Webinars on general legal matters pertaining to real estate transactions.

Farrah Wilder is a fair housing and diversity consultant and thought leader with deep expertise on homeownership issues that impact people of color. She was the Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer for the California Association of REALTORS®. Ms. Wilder was also a civil rights attorney and serves on the board of Equal Rights Advocates, a non-profit organization that fights for gender equity in workplaces and schools.
