NEW .REALTOR DOMAIN TO LAUNCH IN 2014

Home buyers, sellers and investors may soon find it easier to locate trusted and valued real estate information, resources and services online. The National Association of Realtors®, through its wholly owned subsidiary, the Realtors® Information Network (RIN), has applied for the branded .Realtor top-level domain (TLD) as an alternative to the familiar and commonly used .com or .org. Applications have also been submitted for .realestate and .home.

What is a top-level domain (TLD)?

Every domain name around the world ends with a top-level domain (TLD); these are the 2 or more letters that come after the dot. There are currently two types of TLDs: generic top-level domain (gTLDs) such as .com, .mobi, and .info, and country code top-level domains (ccTLDs) such as .uk, .br, and .cn. A gTLD or a ccTLD is managed by a registry operator, an organization that maintains the registry database, including the nameserver information for names registered in the TLD.

Why is this important to REALTORS®?

When a consumer visits a .REALTOR domain in the future we want them to be assured that the registrant is a credible, trusted information source and real estate professional. In the U.S. only real estate licensees, who are members of NAR and subscribe to NAR's strict Code of Ethics can call themselves REALTORS®. REALTORS® are the most trusted, valued source for real estate related information, and the .REALTOR TLD will extend that trust on-line. In Canada the same will be true for CREA members and the CREA Code of Ethics. The top-level domain will also deliver additional branding and marketing value to REALTOR® members and affiliates.

How and when can I reserve a web address for my site with a .REALTOR TLD?

Once approved, anticipated to be sometime in Q1 2014, NAR plans to distribute additional information on how and when domains in the new extensions will be made available. For now, members can sign-up now at www.SignUpForDotREALTOR.com to receive advance email notification for priority registration of their .REALTOR domain(s) one day prior to general release. To be eligible to participate and receive advance notification, you must sign-up before Dec. 31, 2013.

What are the key benefits of doing this?

REALTORS® and consumers will benefit in the following ways:

- 1. The .REALTOR TLD will bring order and consistency to the currently disorganized real estate space on the Internet.
- 2. Establishes a branded destination for consumers, ensuring they're dealing with a REALTOR®.
- 3. Empowers NAR to set standards of professionalism and use that differentiates the .REALTOR domain from all others.
- 4. Builds a TLD that establishes .REALTOR as the trusted source when searching for real estate information on-line.
- 5. Provides an Internationally recognizable brand to differentiate REALTORS® and the organized real estate community from others.
- 6. Positions REALTORS® with a competitive edge in the on-line real estate space, potentially enabling future creation of a search engine making it easier for consumers to locate REALTORS® and real estate services.
- 7. Offers individual REALTORS® a unique solution to further leverage their on-line brand, with the added support of a stronger REALTOR® brand.
- Strengthens and supports existing broker and franchise brands, while concurrently
 leveraging the REALTOR®
 brand.

Where can I learn more?

Additional information will be distributed at www.REALTOR.org/domain as it becomes available.

Again, members can sign-up now at SignUpForDotREALTOR.com to receive advance email notification for priority registration of their .REALTOR domain(s) one day prior to general release. But you must sign-up before Dec. 31, 2013

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

Eighty-one kids enjoyed an unexpected "snow" storm, a movie, time with Santa, and a very early Christmas surprise courtesy of the Southland Regional Association of Realtors and very generous contributors like you. The recent holiday party was shared by kids from Chase Street and Liggett Street Elementary Schools, both of which are located in Panorama City, with students from kindergarten through fifth grade.

The celebration included lunch, presents from Santa Claus, and a special viewing of the Dreamworks Holiday Classic. It was as if the kids were at the movies watching the wacky animals of Madagascar save Christmas, Donkey put on a caroling Christmas "Shrek-tacular," and Hiccup and Toothless unveil an explosive holiday Dragons surprise.

To the events committee and all the volunteers who assisted at the party ... Thank you!

AGENT VISUAL INSPECTION DISCLOSURE FORM (AVID)

BY JEFF KAHN, RISK MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

While this particular CAR form is not required by law, it is an excellent idea to complete the Agent Visual Inspection Disclosure form on all one to four unit residential properties, whether you represent buyer or seller. It is not sufficient for you to sign off on the other agent's disclosure without doing your own. This form should be completed and delivered to the buyer at the outset of the transaction so they have an opportunity to review this during their inspection contingency period.

It is very important that you fill out this form properly. In filling out the form you must go through the entire property, both inside and outside. You are required to check out the reasonably accessible areas of the property. You should go from room to room indicating on the form any items requiring disclosure. If you see nothing of note in a particular room, you should write "nothing noted" on the appropriate line rather than leaving a blank line. You should only write down what you see, not what you might believe to be the cause of any disclosure item. For example, if you see a stain on the ceiling in the living room, you should state that rather than stating that there is a leak in the roof or what you believe the cause of that stain might be. Please do not use adjectives to describe things. If there are cracks in the driveway, the appropriate verbiage would be "cracks noted in driveway" rather than major cracks, minor cracks, settling cracks, etc.

You should never use the words good, excellent or any other such descriptive terms on this form. Stating that the house is in excellent condition or good condition can lead to liability in the event that it turns out there are issues with the property. As indicated, a simple "nothing noted" is the appropriate language if you do not see any issues in a particular location of the property.

This form should not be used by the agent to indicate whether or not appliances are functional. This is the job of the home inspector, not the agent. In addition, this form should not be used to describe the type of materials used in the property. You should not indicate that the floors are hard wood or that the windows are doubling paned, for example.

Please take the time necessary to do a professional job when filling out this form. It is an important disclosure item and, if filled out properly, indicates that you did your due diligence in inspecting the property.

DISPLAY YOUR CAIBRE LICENSE # CORRECTLY

Department of Real Estate (DRE) is now the Bureau of Real Estate (BRE)

As per CAR & BRE, the correct way to display your Bureau of Real Estate license number on all printed* and/or electronic materials is:

CalBRE License # 12345678

Font size must be no smaller than the smallest font on the material.

SRAR Print Shop can help with all your print needs: Business cards, Flyers, Post cards and More. 818 947-2244 or GrahamW@srar.com

More on this issue:

Due to the July 1st transition of the Department of Real Estate (DRE) to the Bureau of Real Estate (BRE), the department has received inquiries from licensees requesting guidance on the use of solicitation materials that reference DRE - a reference needed to comply with various provisions of the Real Estate law.

Specifically, licensees have expressed concerns over the use of solicitation materials, such as business cards and the like, that have been massed produced and would be costly or wasteful to reproduce just to change the DRE reference to BRE.

*Although it is recommended that, on and after July 1st, licensees use "BRE", "Bureau", or "Bureau of Real Estate" and no longer include references to "Department" on solicitation and marketing materials, the Bureau of Real Estate will not be citing licensees solely based on the use of solicitation materials that reference DRE.

However, licensees should make every reasonable effort to exhaust their existing stock over the upcoming months and make the appropriate changes when re-ordering or creating new solicitation materials.
