MEDIAN HOME PRICE HIGHEST SINCE 2007

BY GINA UZUNYAN, PRESIDENT, AND DAVID R. WALKER SOUTHLAND REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® THE MEDIAN PRICE OF HOMES SOLD DURING OCTOBER IN THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY HIT $625,000, THE HIGHEST MONTHLY MEDIAN PRICE SINCE AUGUST 2007, THE SOUTHLAND REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS REPORTED MONDAY.

The median price has been above the $600,000 benchmark every month this year since April and twice — October and August — peaked at $625,000.

That was 11.2 percent higher than a year ago October. Until April, the local median price had been below $600,000 every month since late 2007, hitting rock bottom at $339,000 in December 2011, which is when it started it's steady climb. For comparison, the October median was 4.6 below the record high $655,000 median of June 2007.

The median price of condominiums sold Valleywide last month was $355,000, down 3.8 percent compared to the prior year and off 5.3 percent from September.

"Faced with growing buyer resistance to rising resale prices, the condo median price has been drifting down since its high at $397,000 earlier this year," said Gina Uzunyan, president of the Southland Regional Association of Realtors. "Properly priced condos still sell quickly, but, at least for the moment and especially as seasonal forces come into play, buyers are thinking longer and harder about the impact on their finances before jumping into a home or condo purchase."

A total of 485 single-family homes changed owners last month in the San Fernando Valley, the Association reported. That was down 7.3 percent from a year ago and off 13.7 percent from this September. It was the lowest tally for the month since October 2007. Realtors also helped closed escrow on 200 condominiums, off 4.3 percent from last year.

"2016 will be remembered for its extremely limited inventory of homes for sale," said Jim Link, the Association's chief executive officer. "Even with the tight inventory, buyers finally resisted once prices soared to levels not seen since last decade

"I don't see anything on the horizon," he said, "that is likely to trigger a sudden rise in listings of homes and condos for sale."

TIPS FOR VETERANS WHEN REFINANCING

AS PART OF ITS ANNUAL EMPHASIS ON VETERANS DAY, THE FEDERAL CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU FOCUSED ON MORTGAGE REFINANCE ISSUES IN ITS THIRD SEMI-ANNUAL "SERVICE MEMBER COMPLAINT SNAPSHOT."

Since the bureau began accepting mortgage complaints in 2012, it has received over 12,500 mortgage complaints from service members, veterans, and their families. The snapshot analyzed 1,800 complaints related to mortgage refinancing, which revealed an increased interest in refinancing driven by low interest rates. The bureau found that some lenders aggressively pursue veterans with offers to refinance mortgages obtained from the Veterans Administration – but those offers can hold hidden features, which may not be in the veteran's best interest financially.

Overall, veterans reported that the solicitations and advertisements they received often were misleading. Many complained that lenders failed to deliver on promises made during the application process.

Here are tips to remember when thinking about refinancing:

- Borrowers don't have to respond to marketing An ad may sound or look official, but an owner does not have to refinance a home unless they decide it's in their best interest. Focus on the length of the new loan and whether the interest rate will change, not just the monthly payment.
- Be a savvy consumer Review everything! Specific terms and conditions often are hidden in an advertisement.
- Understand the risks Borrowers may not qualify for the rates and terms listed. Before applying, ask upfront about all the qualifications required before finalizing any loan.

• Shop around – Within a limited time – 14-45 days – borrowers can shop around for a mortgage and it will be counted as a single inquiry affecting their credit score. Don't limit lender choices just because credit has already been pulled by one lender. The impact of an inquiry is small, while shopping around for the best deal can potentially save a lot of money.

Equal Access to Housing

The Equal Opportunity and Housing Committee of the Southland Regional Association of Realtors is charged with developing and implementing programs and seminars to educate the public regarding the homebuying process.

It also seeks to identify barriers that keep people from homeownership while offering solutions, such as through expanded financing and credit options and fair housing initiatives. The intent is to encourage development of affordable housing for all and to promote cultural diversity through community outreach programs that forge goodwill. Toward that end, the committee this year again offered a homebuyer grant program, extending $2,000 grants to 20 recipients, a multicultural mixer, two homebuyer seminars, a global business mixer to introduce Realtors to opportunities worldwide, and a field trip to learn about green environments and sustainability.

SAN JOSE'S $1 MILLION PRICE LEADS NATION

SEVEN OF THE TEN MOST EXPENSIVE HOUSING MARKETS IN THE U.S. ARE IN THE WEST WITH SAN JOSE'S $1 MILLION MEDIAN HOME PRICE LEADING THE WAY.

Persistent shortages of homes for sale throughout the nation led to slightly faster home price appreciation during the third quarter, according to a report released recently by the National Association of Realtors. Price gains were recorded in 83 percent of metro areas with 25 cities in the third quarter seeing double-digit increases. Lawrence Yun, NAR chief economist, said prospective buyers faced a very challenging market during the third quarter.

"Mortgage rates around historical lows and solid local job creation created a winning formula for sustained

HIGHER LOAN LIMIT PRAISED

BY GINA UZUNYAN, PRESIDENT, AND DAVID R. WALKER SOUTHLAND REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

REALTORS APPLAUDED THE FEDERAL HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY'S ANNOUNCEMENT TO INCREASE THE 2017 CONFORMING LOAN LIMITS FOR MORTGAGES ACQUIRED BY FANNIE MAE AND FREDDIE MAC TO $424,100 ON ONE-UNIT PROPERTIES AND A CAP OF $636,150 IN HIGH-COST AREAS.

The previous loan limits were $417,000 and $625,500, respectively.

"Raising the existing Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac conforming loan limits ... will provide stability and certainty to the housing market and give tens of thousands of California homebuyers a chance at homeownership," said Geoff McIntosh, the 2017 president of the California Association of Realtors.

"The FHFA recognizes that home prices have recovered, not just in California but also across the nation. Many higherpriced areas of the state will benefit greatly from the higher limit." The conforming loan limit determines the maximum size of a mortgage that government-sponsored enterprises Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac can buy or "guarantee." Non-conforming, or "jumbo loans," typically have tighter underwriting standards and carry higher mortgage interest rates than conforming loans, increasing monthly payments and hampering the ability of families in California to purchase homes by making them less affordable.

homebuying demand all summer long," he said. "Unfortunately ... deficient supply levels limited their options and drove prices higher — especially in markets in the West and South.

"That's why it's absolutely imperative that homebuilders ramp up the production of more single-family homes to meet demand and slow price growth."

The five most expensive housing markets in the third quarter were the San Jose metro area, where the median existing single-family price was $1,000,000; San Francisco, $835,400; urban Honolulu, $745,300; Anaheim-Santa Ana, $740,100; and San Diego, $589,300. Los Angeles had a median home price of $536,700, up 5.1 percent from a year ago. The five lowest-cost metro areas in the third quarter were Youngstown-Warren-Boardman, Ohio, $90,300; Cumberland, Maryland, $94,400; Decatur, Illinois, $99,400; Elmira, New York, $109,400; and Rockford, Illinois, $111,900

Buying A Home Possible with Realtor Aid

Brian Botow purchased a home in Canyon Country this year with the help of a grant from the Southland Regional Association of Realtors' Charitable Foundation and the California Association of Realtors'

Housing Affordability Fund.

Gina Uzunyan, president of the Southland Regional Association of Realtors, is pictured presenting the grant to Botow. Realtor Kristy Fields provided professional assistance to in Botow's purchase. The $2,000 grant was used to defray closing costs.

The Southland Regional Association of Realtors and C.A.R. each year offers multiple grants to qualified prospective homebuyers who meet specific qualifications. All of the 2016 grants have already been awarded, but the program is expected to be renewed in 2017. Watch this weekly page for details.

Connecting Younger Real Estate Professionals

Younger real estate practitioners often strive for a way to connect with each other and tap into valuable resources that will help them gain business savvy, tips on serving clients, and how to fuel their success.

That's why the Young Professionals Network was launched in 2006 — as a way to help the upcoming generation of Realtors build a strong network within the real estate industry.

Through a lively blog, and an engaged YPN advisory subcommittee, the program gives its members the tools they need to advance their careers while having fun in the process. Through planned social events, YPN increases awareness of Southland Regional Association of Realtors benefits and activities.

The committee also helps to boost membership participation in other committees, educational opportunities and mentorship programs. Members of YPN typically serve no more than three consecutive years. After this time, members typically join other SRAR committees, if they have not done so already.

THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES ON NOV. 30 LAUNCHED "SAFE SIDEWALKS LA" — AN INVESTMENT OF $1.4 BILLION IN AN UNPRECEDENTED 30-YEAR PROGRAM DESIGNED TO FIX BROKEN SIDEWALKS, MAKING THEM SAFE AND ACCESSIBLE TO EVERYONE.

The program was approved unanimously by the Los Angeles City Council after nearly three years of public dialogue. It received input from hundreds of city residents and from business and professional organizations, such as the 9,500-member Southland Regional Association of Realtors, which serves the San Fernando and Santa Clarita valleys.

Safe Sidewalks L.A. will be spearheaded by the City's Bureau of Engineering in close coordination with many departments and agencies.

"Safe and restored sidewalks make our neighborhoods more livable and our city more beautiful," said Mayor Eric Garcetti. "Working with the City Council, we took on a 40-year-old challenge to repair our broken sidewalks. We can now redouble those efforts. I encourage all Angelenos to take advantage of this historic program."

Repairs surrounding city facilities, such as fire stations, police stations, parks, libraries and recreation centers, are currently in progress. This next phase is an expansion of the repair program that will address broken sidewalks. Repair requests from people with disabilities, their families and caretakers, will be prioritized.

"For decades, the City of Los Angeles lacked a coherent plan to deal with crumbling sidewalks in our neighborhoods," said

Councilmember Paul Krekorian, chair of the City's Budget and Finance Committee. "That's all changing with

Councilmember Joe Buscaino said "today we are moving one step closer to efficiently and effectively fixing every side-walk in L.A. The Sidewalk Rebate program is a limited opportunity for Los Angeles property owners to accelerate their sidewalk repair by completing the work themselves and receiving a 50 percent rebate from the City as well as a warranty on the work."

Grievance Committee

Nipping Disputes in the Bud

The Grievance Committee of the 9,500-member Southland Regional Association of Realtors strives to clip real estate disputes before they bud.

The committee's mission is to review complaints from members and the public to determine whether a formal hearing is warranted. So far this year, the Grievance Committee has processed 21 grievances, eight arbitrations, and 20 Ombudsman cases. To serve as a member of the Grievance Committee applicants must be interviewed prior to appointment to the committee. In addition, prospective committee members must have been a member of an association of Realtors for a minimum of two years.
